

Present Perfect	Past Simple
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>❖ Se usa para acciones que comenzaron en el pasado y aún continúan en el presente.</li> <li>❖ No tiene referencia de tiempo de cuando han ocurrido.</li> <li>❖ Estructura: Have/has + past participle (3ra columna)</li> <li>❖ Palabras claves: Ever Never Since For Just Already Yet</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>❖ Se usa para acciones que comenzaron en el pasado y finalizaron en el pasado.</li> <li>❖ Estructura: pronombre+ past simple (2da columna)</li> <li>❖ Palabras claves: Yesterday Ago Last (week / month / year) In 2006 (año) On Monday (días de la semana)</li> </ul>

• Leo las oraciones, busco las palabras claves y elijo la opción correcta.

1. I _____ a new dress yesterday.

bought

have bought

2. I _____ never _____ such a delicious cake.

have ___ eaten

ate

3. She _____ born in 2006.

have been

was

4. I _____ a movie yesterday.

saw

have seen

5. I _____ in this house since 2010.

have lived

lived

• Presta atención a las palabras claves y elije si están en "Present Perfect" o "Past Simple"

I have lost my phone just now.

Present Perfect

Past Simple

I went to the doctor two days ago.

Present Perfect

Past Simple

I travelled to Japan last year.

Present Perfect

Past Simple

she has washed her car already.

Present Perfect

Past Simple

They have lived in New York since 2000

Present Perfect

Past Simple

He played tennis yesterday.

Present Perfect

Past Simple