

ONLINE EXERCISE 2

LESSON 29 - Countable and Uncountable nouns

Listen and complete the sentences with many, much, some, a, an and food names.

1. There are many vegetarians in INDIA.

So many types of Indian street food don't have meat.

Chaat (small snacks with Indian spices and some vegetables in them) is very popular street food.

People like pani puri too. Pani puris are balls with chillies and lemon juice.

2. What can you eat?

In MEXICO, there is chicken with cheese and lettuce everywhere.

Also, the Mexican tortilla, tortilla, is often from maize.

There are usually beans and cheese in tortillas. There is sometimes too. But be careful, Mexicans love hot chillies in their tortillas too!

3. Visitors to MOROCCO love the street food. You can have a big meal on the street there. You can buy kebabs, kebabs, kebabs, kebabs, and types of kebabs. How many different things do you want to taste?

