

Name: _____

Score: _____

2 True/False questions

Definition

solvents

 True False

Term

1 of 9

Water easily dissolves salt, sugars, minerals, gases, and even other _____ such as alcohol.

Definition

A substance that is dissolved in a solution.

 True False

Term

2 of 9

Acid

2 Multiple choice questions

Definition

water

- Water's polarity gives it ability to dissolve both ionic compounds and other ____ molecules
- Water easily dissolves salt, sugars, minerals, gases, and even other ____ such as alcohol.
- Blood is mostly _____. It contains many dissolved compounds, but also cells and other undissolved particles that remain in suspension as the blood moves through the body
- Water is not always pure: often it is a _____.

Definition

An attraction between molecules of different substances

4 of 9

- Cation
- Adhesion
- Anion
- Cohesion

2 Matching questions

 pH polar

- A. Chemists devised a measurement system called the ____ scale to indicate the concentration of H⁺

ions in solution.

- B. Water's polarity gives it ability to dissolve both ionic compounds and other ____ molecules

3 Written questions

Definition

7 of 9

Attraction between molecules of the same substance

Definition

8 of 9

A measure of the ability of an atom in a chemical compound to attract electrons

Definition

9 of 9

the amount of heat energy required to raise the temperature of one gram of substance by one degree Celsius
