READING. Read this text and circle T for true or F for false*5 x 0.4 = 2 marks

How often do you read a book? A lot of people love reading, but we don't often read books more than once. Nowadays people are beginning to buy e-books and read them on special screens like iPads or Kindles, but some people prefer paper books. However, paper books are becoming more expensive. What can you do if you like real books, but you haven't got much money? You can join BookCrossing.com. It's a free book club, and there are almost a million members around the world. It's also a book club with a difference. When you finish a book, you go to the webpage and you write a message, like 'I'm leaving Hamlet in the park, next to some red roses, at 5.00 p.m. on Friday.' Then, you take the book to the park and leave it with the message for another person. It's an original idea for swapping books and you can sometimes make new friends. There are also a lot of official BookCrossing zones in cafés around the world, from Denmark to Dubai, and Singapore to Spain. BookCrossing.com started in 2001. It grew slowly, but now more than six million books are moving around. Why not try it?

1. In the text we read about a free book club around the world.
