Manager: Hello?

Olivia: Hi. My name is Olivia. I'm calling about the _____ for rent.

Manager: Oh, yes. Which one?

Olivia: The two-bedroom one _____ for $1,500.

Manager: OK. That one is still _____.

Olivia: I see. It's _____ accommodation, right?

Manager: Right.

Olivia: Can you tell me a little more about it? Like, uh, where is it _____ exactly?

Manager: We're at National Boulevard and Bundy. Did you see our _____ online?

Olivia: Yes. It says you're _____ bus lines – that's good, 'cause I go to school every day.

Manager: Oh, so you're a _____ student. How many people is this for?

Olivia: Just me and my roommate. Um, can you tell me, is there _____ on-site?

Manager: Yes, there's on-site laundry, just there's no washing machine in the apartment though. We have a laundry room _____. It's a very nice building, security _____, elevator, you've got a nice view of the park...

Olivia: That's good. What kind of _____ do you _____?

Manager: Well, I can email you an application; it explains everything. But the main thing the _____ requires is one-month rent as a _____ deposit and a $200 cleaning _____. – that's not _____. And of course, we _____ a credit check.

Olivia: Oh, I see. Well, my roommate and I are international students, so I'm not sure about the credit...

Manager: Well, you know what? Don't _____ about that right now. Why don't you come by and see the place. I'm here 9 to 5 every day.

Olivia: OK, we can come by later today, around 4:30. Can you give me the exact address?

Manager: 5443 National. And your name was Olivia, right?

Olivia: Right. Olivia Sandoval. Are you the _____?

Manager: No, I'm the _____. I'm Larry. My office is next to the front door.

Olivia: OK. I'll see you _____ then.

Manager: See you later. Bye.
