Two Famous Modes of Transportation

The Shinkansen is a high-speed train service in Japan. The trains are very fast and have comfortable seats. They can travel at 300 kilometers per hour! The trains help people who live in the country to get to work in the cities. They are more eco-friendly than buses because they can carry more passengers.

London is famous for its big red buses. Tickets are cheap, but buses are slow and uncomfortable if the roads are busy. They're popular for visitors who want to go sight-seeing.

Example:

0. Trains in Japan are very fast.

A. Right

B. Wrong

C. Doesn't say

Answer:

0	A	B	C

Part 6

New message from Lisa.

Hi, my grandpa showed me so many photos for our school project!
He used to visit other countries by steamship. They were very crowded. He went to school by bicycle. He also used to visit other cities by steam train! He said it was wonderful. How did your grandma or grandpa used to travel?
Lisa
