A Spring Conversation

Julie: Good morning Monique. _____ you?

Monique: I'm good thanks, _____you, Julie?

Julie: I'm good. _____your weekend?

Monique: _____really good.

Julie: Why? _____do?

Monique: Well, Friday after school my family and I went hiking. We saw baby snakes and frogs. Then at night we stargazed for a couple of hours in our backyard.

Julie: Did _____lot of stars?

Monique: Yes, of course. Then Saturday morning we did some spring cleaning. We cleaned the basement, the garage and all the closets. We put many things in a pile and looked at them. Then we made boxes for what we wanted to keep, throw away, recycle, and donate/sell. We put the things from the "keep" box back in the basement, garage and closets. Then we painted the basement. At night, we went for an evening walk.

Julie: Wow! You were _____!! Did you _____ on Sunday?

Monique: No, we didn't. We got up early and cleaned the garden and the yard. We saw lots of worms, ants and earwigs. Later, my brother and his family came over for a BBQ.

Julie: Nice. Did your kids _____with the spring cleaning?

Monique: Yes, they did. But they took breaks to play catch and skip. We didn't want to go inside because it felt so good to be outside after the long winter. How was _____ Julie?
