Quantifiers – Practice

Fill in the gaps with a suitable quantifier : much , many, a lot of, lots of, a little, a few, little, few, none, both, either, neither, every, each , all, (the) whole - according to the meaning of the sentences. Sometimes there is more than one possibility correct.

1..... people travel to the city centre for work.

2. I speak ..... Italian.

3. We have .....time, so don't hurry too much.

4.There are ..... more things I'd like to discuss.

5. There's too .....work here for one person to do.

6. ..... person has a unique fingerprint and tonque print.

7. Where is ..... the money I gave you?

8. When I graduated my.....family came to the ceremony.

9. You can have as .....of this material as you like.

10. There are very.....scholarships for students in this university.

11. Preparing for a difficult exam will take you..... time.

12. ..... children like to play.

13. ..... children in our street like to play.

14. There are two beautiful girls in my class. I love them..... .

15. It was a difficult question. ..... of the 2 students knew the answer.

15. Just tell me the .....truth.

16.I've waited ..... my life for such moments as this.

17. Nearly.....home in the country has a computer.

18. The ticket cost us 10 Euros..... .

19. .....agreed to sign the contract.

20. Which dress should I put on for the event? I don't really like .....of them.

