

REVIEW Countries & Nationalities, pronouns, verb to be

Complete the conversation with the verb to be in the positive (+), negative (-) or question (?) form. Use contractions where possible.

A ¹ _____ (?) you and your wife from England?

B No, we ² _____ (-). I ³ _____ (+) from Edinburgh in Scotland and my wife ⁴ _____ (+) Canadian.

A Canadian? ⁵ _____ (?) she from Montreal?
My sister's at university in Montreal.

B No, she's from Vancouver. What about you? You ⁶ _____ (-) English. ⁷ _____ (?) you Australian?

A No, I ⁸ _____ (-). I'm from Wellington in New Zealand.

Listen and check

Complete the questions with the correct form of the words in (brackets).

- 1 What's your name? (you)
- 2 Where are _____ from? (you)
- 3 What's _____ name? (he)
- 4 Is _____ from Mexico? (she)
- 5 Is this _____ book? (she)
- 6 What are _____ names? (they)
- 7 What's _____ teacher's name? (we)

Listen and write the words in the correct column.

	Country	Nationality	Main language
1
2
3
4

Complete the table with the missing words.

Listen & check

Dubai is a very multicultural city in the ¹ _____. People come here to work from many different countries. Only 10% of people in Dubai are ² _____; 90% of the city's population are from other countries. Some people come from the UK and the ³ _____, but many people are from Asia. India is home for most of Dubai's workers, but people come from ⁴ _____ and the Philippines, too. The language of the United Arab Emirates is ⁵ _____, but because of its international population, lots of people use ⁶ _____.