

I – Identify the underlined word if it is subject or predicate.

- _____ 1. A local artist visited our school one day.
- _____ 2. The man introduced himself.
- _____ 3. The principal accepted the beautiful donation.
- _____ 4. The policeman noticed the confused stranger in the hallway.
- _____ 5. She brought the project to the school.
- _____ 6. The busy student forgot to answer her assignment.
- _____ 7. He gave the beggar the food he had.
- _____ 8. The teacher asked a student for their presentation.
- _____ 9. The lost child ran across the street to the police station.
- _____ 10. Dad bought a new car last week.

Directions: Identify each type of sentence.

1. The students wanted to go on a field trip.
- a. interrogative b. imperative c. declarative
2. Winter is my favorite time of the year.
- a. imperative b. declarative c. interrogative
3. Get out of my room!
- a. declarative b. interrogative c. imperative

4. Please open the door.

- a. exclamatory b. declarative c. imperative

5. I love my dog.

- a. interrogative b. declarative c. imperative

6. My new car is black.

- a. exclamatory b. imperative c. declarative

7. Get my bag in the office.

- a. interrogative b. imperative c. exclamatory

8. Az, take a bath.

- a. declarative b. interrogative c. imperative

9. Listen to your teacher.

- a. imperative b. declarative c. exclamatory

10. Siegh and Az are very good friends.

- a. declarative b. imperative c. interrogative

11. We are so excited about going to the park!

- a. interrogative b. Imperative c. exclamatory

12. How far is the park from the school?

- a. imperative b. interrogative c. exclamatory

13. Have you finished your project?

- a. declarative b. interrogative c. exclamatory

14. Wow! That looks amazing!

- a. interrogative b. declarative c. exclamatory

15. Whoa! That's great!

a. interrogative

b. exclamatory

c. imperative

16. Can we watch a movie tonight?

a. declarative

b. exclamatory

c. interrogative

17. Yippee! We won the game.

a. exclamatory

b. imperative

c. interrogative

18. Hurry up and get going!

a. interrogative

b. exclamatory

c. declarative

19. This place is very scary!

a. exclamatory

b. imperative

c. interrogative

20. Do you feel alright?

a. interrogative

b. exclamatory

c. declarative