THERE IS ONE MISTAKE IN EACH OF THESE SENTENCES. FIND THE MISTAKE AND REWRITE THE SENTENCES CORRECTLY. DO NOT WRITE CONTRACTIONS.

1. He was the one which recommended this solution.

2. I like a lot sports.

3. The doctor described patiently the surgical procedure.

4. I was wondering if could you help me with something.

5. Could you tell me how should I do this?

6. Do we have food enough?

7. Is the conference room enough big for 10 people?

8. I think Stephanie's in the hospital visiting her great aunt.

9. I slept during three hours, and I woke up just in time for dinner.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

10. No one interrupted for his presentation.

11. Mike talks about his ex-wife never.

12. He had his secretary to reserve a table for two.

13. My niece helped me to set up my computer.

14. Have you had some difficulty getting approval?

15. We did not have some difficulty getting approval.

16. The meeting went well. Mike said he will consider our proposal.

17. I can not believe my youngest sister is completing 20 this year.

18. Are you sure this is the most new release?

19. Kevin is the most old person here.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

20. To travel to Indonesia, I must got a visa.

21. Marilyn will be right back. She must took an important call.

22. This coffee tastes badly.

23. Do you think the decorations look well?

24. It is impossible for us completing this one time.

25. For its negative side effects, the medication was banned.

26. I was late for the traffic.

27. They have been in the lobby since two hours.

28. They have been in the lobby for 10 AM.

29. I saw a friend of your last night at the party.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

30. Did not you say that a friend of Mike works for at post office?

31. He used to be a full-time employee, but now he is working like a consultant.

32. To fish is a good way to relax.

33. My job involves to write technical documents.

34. I was late because the traffic.

35. I was late because of there was a lot of traffic.

36. Monica told me she was going to stop at the bank and to deposit the money.

37. They said they are doing everything they can to save money. Even they sold their car.

LIVEWORKSHEETS