THE DAILY LIFE OF A JAPANESE TEENAGER

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Akari is 13 years old. She lives in Osaka with her family. Every morning, she has breakfast at a low table which is called a 'kotatsu'. She often has steamed rice, miso soup and grilled fish, then she completes her breakfast with a cup of hot green tea. After breakfast, she walks to school. It only takes five minutes because her school is so close to her house. She goes to school from Monday to Friday and sometimes, Saturday mornings, too. Her favourite subjects are art and maths. When Akari has free time, she enjoys playing all kinds of sport. Table tennis is her favourite at the moment. She loves table tennis because it's an indoor sport, so she can play whether it's raining or snowing outside. Both her brothers love this sport too, so she usually plays against one of them. It really doesn't matter who wins because the most important thing is having fun. She says people don't need expensive equipment to play table tennis. All they need is a paddle, a ball and a table to play on.

21. 'Kotatsu' is a Japanese dish for breakfast. false
22. It takes Akari five minutes to go to school on foot. true
23. Akira doesn't study at the weekends. false
24. Akira thinks it's fun when she wins her brothers. false
25. The equipment for table tennis doesn't cost much money. true

VI. Read the following passage on Tien's blog. For each question, choose the correct option A, B, C or D.

Dear Hannah,

I'm in South Korea at the moment. The flight was fine, but it (26. flew/ took/ had/ spent) twelve hours, so I was really tired when I got there. I'm a student at the Changwon School of Taekwondo for one month. My routine is the same every day. I get up at 6 o'clock, have breakfast, and at 7 a.m., I start training. We train our legs, arms, stomachs and backs. We run up and down steps and do press-ups, (27. but/ so/ then/ because) we don't fight. We learn how to defend ourselves, not to hurt other people. The training is very, very (28. relaxing/ boring/ dull/ tiring), so I feel exhausted at the end of the day. The training (29. are finishing/ will finish/ finishes/ finish) at 6 p.m. I have dinner, and then the evenings are free. I often play computer games or chat to my Korean friends. They have taught me some interesting things about Korean culture. For example, you should bow slightly when you greet older people. To ask someone to come to you, hold out your arm, palm down and move your fingers toward yourself. You (30. should/ shouldn't/ must wouldn't) call someone by curling your index finger, because it's very rude in Korea.

Tell me about your summer.

Write back soon.

Michael
