

Present simple

Use the verbs in grey to complete the sentences below.

study

Anne and Tom are students. They both study at the university of Durham. Anne study law and Tom study mathematics.

like

Tim and Sam are best friends, but there are not many things that they both like. Tim like sports and adventure. Sam like music and art. Still, they like spending time together.

play

My friend Sarah and I like sports. We both play ball games. Sarah play volleyball and I play baseball.

watch

Many kids in our class watch TV every day. Martha and Greg watch music shows, Tina watch programmes about cooking, Ben watch the news and Peter and Dave watch sports programmes.