GRAMMAR The past continuous

The past continuous describes an activity that continued during a period of time in the past or at a specific time in the past.

The car was making a funny sound while they were driving.
Were the headlights working? (Yes, they were. / No, they weren't.)
Who was driving your car at 10:00 last night?

Form the past continuous with was or were and a present participle.
The other driver was speeding.

Remember: The simple past tense describes a completed past action. Use when to combine a continuing past action with a completed action.

past continuous simple past tense
It was raining when she had the accident.
