

3. Edit: Read your sentences, make changes or corrections and final decisions about your narrative. Think about what you can improve, check if the sequence of events is well connected and easy to follow.
4. Final Draft: Use the lines provided to write your final narrative. This is what will be evaluated.

	5 pts	3 pts	1pt
Grammar	Uses the simple past and past progressive structures throughout the narrative. No mistakes.	Uses some forms of the simple past and past progressive structures throughout the narrative. 2-4 mistakes	Difficult comprehension of the paragraph due to grammar mistakes.
Organization	Narrative exhibits a logical sequence of ideas; they flow smoothly from one to another. It has a clear beginning, body, and ending.	Narrative attempts to provide a logical sequence, some ideas lack coherence, but it is understandable in general terms.	Narrative provides no logical organization of ideas. There is no clear beginning, body, and ending
Content	Uses 5 or more vocabulary words from the instructions in the narrative. Provides clear details to support ideas.	Narrative partially shows the use of vocabulary words from the instructions (1-3). Details provided to support ideas are poor.	Vocabulary words from the instructions are not used in the narrative. No details are provided to support ideas.
Spelling	No spelling mistakes.	2-4 spelling mistakes throughout the narrative.	More than 5 spelling mistakes throughout the narrative.

Obtained Points: _____ Obtained %: _____ Score: _____