Mr. Patrick's Class Visit A Castle

Paul's class at school are studying castles in history. So last week their history teacher, Mr. Patrick, took them to visit an old castle on a hill next to the sea. They went by bus and stopped at the bottom of the hill. Mr. Patrick pointed to the castle at the top of the hill and said, "There is no road up there so we have to walk". The children were tired and thirsty when they arrived at the castle. But Mr. Patrick had juice for all of them. It was very interesting because Mr. Patrick showed them all the different parts of the castle and explained its history. On the way down the hill, Paul's friends said, 'Let's have a race.' So Paul and his friends started to run.

"Stop running!" shouted Mr. Patrick. But the boys ran faster and faster and then Paul fell over and hurt his leg. It wasn't broken, but he couldn't walk very well. Mr. Patrick saw a farmer on his horse in a field. He went to speak to him and the farmer let Paul ride his big brown horse down the hill to the bus. "Sorry we didn't listen to you on the hill," Paul said to Mr. Patrick, "but we listened in the castle. It was great! Can we come again?"
