

Second Conditional sentences.

Choose the correct option

Alex goes to the skate park with his friends every day but his parents wish he doesn't spend / wouldn't spend so much time there.

I don't have enough money to take a taxi. If only taxis weren't / aren't so expensive in London!

Jenny has been studying all summer. She wishes she stopped / could stop, but her exams are next week.

Everyone in my family hates going to the dentist. If only we didn't have to / wouldn't have to go twice a year!

My favourite band is coming to the UK next summer. I wish they would come / didn't come to play a concert in my city.

A band at my school is looking for a singer. If only I would sing / could sing well! I know that sometimes I can be quite impatient. I just wish I were / weren't so impatient.

Everyone knows that I don't like trying new things. I wish I were / weren't a bit more adventurous.

The last episode of my favourite series is next week. I wish I had to / didn't have to wait six more days!

I need a job and this café is looking for a cook. If only I would cook / could cook well.

That's the last piece of birthday cake. If only we have / had some more! It's delicious.

George has been trying to solve this Maths problem all day but it's very difficult.

He wishes he finished / could finish it before the weekend.

I love rock climbing. If only my grandparents lived / would live in the mountains.

Sam gets so upset about small things.

I wish she doesn't take / didn't take everything so seriously.