

Writing 2: Replying to a letter asking for advice

Read this email to an online advice blog.

Dear Advice Line,

My mum started a new job last year. We moved to a new house to be nearer her work. Because of this, I had to change schools. Before we moved I was very happy in my old school. I had lots of friends and I was doing well with my school work. Since I changed schools I have been feeling lonely and I haven't been doing well in my lessons because everything is new. What am I doing wrong?

Stella

Now write a short reply to Stella. Use these notes to help.

- Show that you understand Stella's problems and be sympathetic.
- Explain that they are natural and not her fault.
- Advise her what to do.
