

skills
Focus

Identifying Opinions

Write fact or opinion, according to what is stated or implied in the sentence.

1. non-Indians can go through a rite of passage similar to the vision of quest of Native American.
2. non-Indians who go through a vision quest are not respectful of Native American culture.
3. The government of the UAE is trying to encourage unmarried Emirati men to marry Emirati women.
4. Traditional Emirati weddings are too lavish.
5. Traditional Japanese weddings are more beautiful than the new Western-style ones.
6. A majority of Japanese couples choose a Western-style wedding.
7. Many couples in Western countries are looking for a traditional wedding experience.
8. It is very strange to get married in the ocean.

Objective: To identify the grammar rule.