

I think three things that people don't really know about me are that

One – I have bad eyesight. So I have these huge glasses that I wear that are the ugliest pair of glasses you've ever seen in your . But they were the ones in the glasses that no one was gonna buy. They were like in the corner, they're all dusty. I'm like, 'no one is gonna buy those, and they're so ugly'. So I had to buy them. So that's one.

Two is that if I don't have in the morning, I get a headache at night.

Three is that I like to paint. Whenever I have downtime, whenever I'm I'll like turn off all the lights in my room and light candles and to music and paint. Usually I'll send them to people – like send them to the radio programmers or things like that. But I like to paint.
