Secondly, learning about something that interests you can improve your knowledge. Moreover, there are studies that show that getting a degree can help you learn how to ask questions and solve problems.

On the one hand, it is certainly true that there are advantages to studying at university. Firstly, certain jobs require certain degrees. If you want to be a lawyer or a doctor, you will need to get a degree in Law or Medicine.

However, on the other hand, there are a lot of jobs that do not require a degree. As a result, some people prefer to start work as soon as they leave school without going to university. For example, if you want to run a shop, it is not necessary to get a degree in Psychology first.

Likewise, you do not have to study Engineering or Education in order to manage a business. In addition, university can be very expensive, so some people prefer to get a job instead of paying so much money.

In conclusion, there are definitely advantages to receiving a university education. A degree is necessary for certain jobs but not essential for others. Nevertheless, in my opinion, everyone who has the opportunity to go to university, should go.

At the present time, a lot of people want to have a university education while others choose not to go to university, and get a job instead. In this essay, I am going to compare both of these options and then offer my own view.
