

Halloween

Read about Halloween in Australia.

Write in the best verb: does the sentence need a present or a past simple verb?

Every year, Halloween night (is/was) _____ on 31 October. This (is/was) _____ spring time in Australia.

Halloween (is/was) _____ a very big holiday in America.

31 October (is/was) _____ autumn in America.

Americans (call/called) _____ this season 'Fall'.

Halloween (is/was) _____ a very old celebration.

It (comes/came) _____ from England and Ireland.

Twenty or thirty years ago, no-one (celebrates/celebrated)

Halloween in Australia.

Today it (is/was) _____ different!

In 2020 and 2021, Halloween (is/was) quiet.
Children (stay/stayed) home.
People (are/were) worried about COVID. But this year (is/was) different.
What (do/did) people do at Halloween time?
They (wear/wore) crazy costumes and make-up.
Children (ask/asked) for lollies. They (say/said) 'trick or treat'.
Some people (have/had) parties and they (cook/cooked) strange food.
Shops (sell/sold) a lot of pumpkins. People
(make/made) crazy faces from the pumpkins.
Yesterday I (go/went) to the shop to buy a pumpkin, but they (do/did) not have any left.
What do/did you think about Halloween?