

1 Look. Find a snake, a crocodile and a tortoise.

2 Read and listen.  CD2
32

Snake

Tortoise

Cocodrile

REPTILES

Reptiles are a group of animals.
You can see some reptiles in the photos.

Reptiles haven't got wings.
Some reptiles haven't got legs.
Some reptiles have got four legs.

Reptiles haven't got ears. They've got ear holes.

Reptiles aren't furry. They've got scales.
The scales on this snake are green.
The scales on a tortoise make a shell.

Reptiles lay eggs. This turtle is laying eggs on the beach.

Reptiles are cold-blooded. They can't move fast when they're cold.
They need energy
from the sun.
This iguana is sitting in the sun. Reptiles are lively when they're warm.

Choose an animal and describe it.
Elige un animal y descríbelo.

DESCRIBE AN ANIMAL

