

4. Fill in the blanks with the words provided.

zygote

sperm

puberty

oviduct

fertilisation

ovum

ovulation

menstruation

reproduction

- a. _____ is the fusion of male sex cell and female sex cell.
- b. The male sex cell is the _____ produce by the testes and the female sex cell is the _____ produce by the ovary.
- c. _____ happens when the male sex cell and female sex cell fuses at the _____ to form _____.
- d. The process when an ovum is released by the ovary is known as _____.
- e. _____ is the discharge of broken lining of uterus wall, unfertilised ovum and blood through the vagina.
- f. _____ is the period of rapid growth and sexual maturation during which the sexual reproductive system becomes fully functional and the person is capable of sexual reproduction.

5. Write TRUE or FALSE.

- a. When a boy matures, they develop rounded hips.
- b. A girl will develop moustache when she matures.
- c. A zygote is formed when no fertilization happens.
- d. AIDS is caused by Human Immunodeficiency Virus.
- e. Sexually transmitted Infections can be transmitted by having a single partner.

