

Harry Potter

Instructions: Read the text, and write the correct form of the verb in past.

Harry Potter was a very special boy. He (discover) he was a wizard. He (live) with his aunt, uncle and cousin, but he wasn't happy because they (not love) him. One day, he (receive) a letter from Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry. They (accept) Harry as a new magical student, but his uncle (not want) have a wizard in the family, so they (move) to a lonely island.

Rubeus Hagrid (rescue) Harry, and took him to the Diagon Alley to buy new clothes, books and his wand. He (not get) to school by plane, he took the train in Platform 9 ¾. There, he (talk) to Ron Wesley, and Hermione Granger for the first time. They (introduce) themselves, and ate candies.

When they (arrive) at school, they had a big dinner with the rest of students and teachers. Then, the Sorting Hat (decide) which children go into which house: Gryffindor, Hufflepuff, Ravenclaw or Slytherin. Fortunately, Harry didn't go to Slytherin, he went to Gryffindor with Ron, and Hermione. They were very happy!

At school, they (learn) about potions, the history of magic, and defense against the dark arts. Harry also (play) a sport: Quidditch. He (use) his broom, a Nimbus 2000, to fly and catch the ball, the Golden Snitch. Harry was a great player, and a great wizard, but Draco Malfoy (not like) that. He always (attack) Harry.
