LISTENING

You will hear an interview with a woman called Karen Jackson who runs a holiday company for teenagers with special needs. Decide if each sentence is True (T) or False (F).

1 Karen got the idea for her current job when she was working as a travel agent.	T	F
2 Karen gives the example of people who can't see well that need help when travelling.	T	F
3 Karen says that on her company's holidays, people can go camping if they wish.	T	F
4 Karen's company hires people with particular skills to help the teenagers with special needs.	T	F
5 Karen admits that her holidays can be a little more expensive than some others.	T	F
6 Karen points out that museums are usually suitable places to take people with special needs.	T	F
7 Karen was pleased that they managed to get one teenager, Nina, to go swimming	T	F

LIVEWORKSHEETS