

Be Verbs

I. Tell whether the given sentence is correct or wrong.

The student are running around.	yes	no
My Christmas presents are all reminders of God's love.	yes	no
Yesterday, my mom is cooking breakfast.	yes	no
Today, the dogs is arriving from their long walk.	yes	no
Sally is excited about the show tomorrow!	yes	no
Filemon is a great actor.	yes	no
Before, I am a student.	yes	no
Bob and Ben is great leaders.	yes	no
The song is calming me down right now.	yes	no
We were arriving today.	yes	no

II. Choose the correct be-verb for the sentence.

1. Christmas time (is, was, are) approaching soon!
2. I (was, am, were) excited for the trees and the lights now.
3. Last Christmas, Cebuanos (was, is, were) facing the effects of a big storm.
4. Hopefully, this Christmas (am, were, is) going to be different.
5. My siblings and I (am, were, are) preparing our gifts today.
6. We (are, were, is) buying each other little presents soon.

7. We (am, were, are) also buying gifts for our parents today.
8. Our parents (is, are, was) clueless about our surprise!
9. Also, this Christmas (is, were, am) special because there is a new baby in the family!
10. He (is, are, am) going to get the most gifts.

