ROCKING AROUND THE USA!

Noburu Hideki and Roku Ito come from Tokyo. They became best friends at school when they discovered they were both crazy about American music.

When they were 16 they started going to concerts all over Japan. It was their dream to one day visit America – the home of the music they love.

The boys are now 22, and they're planning a trip to the US. They're going to travel from one home of jazz to another – from Louisiana in the south to New York in the north. They're beginning their trip in New Orleans, where it's Jazz Fest week. Last year about 400,000 people attended the festival. Noburu and Roku are going to stay in the French Quarter of the city. 'It's so exciting,' says Roku. 'We're staying near Bourbon Street. It's famous for its jazz clubs and nightlife, and it's only a 30-minute-walk from the festival.'

From New Orleans they're going to drive north to Memphis, Tennessee, the home of Elvis Presley.

They're going to visit Elvis's house, Graceland, which has over 600,000 visitors a year – only the White House gets more visitors. 'I can't believe we're going to see Elvis's house,' says Noburu. 'We're staying in a hotel, and there's a 24-hour Elvis movie channel in every room! Isn't that fantastic!'

After Memphis they're driving further north to Nashville. There they're going to listen to live country music, but they're only staying there two days. 'Roku doesn't like country and western music much, so we're moving on to Cleveland, Ohio,' says Noburu. 'Did you know that Cleveland is where rock 'n' roll got its name? A DJ there named it on his radio show in 1951. Amazing!'

They are finishing their trip in New York because that is where so many musicians love playing. They are hoping to visit a lot of jazz clubs in Harlem and Greenwich Village. 'We can't wait. It's the trip of a lifetime!'
