

1 Choose the correct adverb.

We had our maths test yesterday. <sup>1</sup> First / Later, we walked into the classroom and <sup>2</sup> suddenly / then we sat down. <sup>3</sup> First / Next, the teacher gave us our test papers and we were about to start the test but <sup>4</sup> suddenly / finally, there was a huge bang outside and fireworks filled the sky! Our teacher thought that it was a party somewhere nearby. <sup>5</sup> Finally / Next, when it went quiet again, we began our test. <sup>6</sup> Later / First, we discovered that a fire had started in a fireworks factory across town!

2 Complete the email with the adverbs in the box.

finally	first	later	next
suddenly	then

Hi Megan,

You didn't miss a lot in art today.

<sup>1</sup> _____, we had to choose what we wanted to draw. Mr Jenkins had brought some different objects and we had to choose one each. <sup>2</sup> _____, he asked us to decide whether we wanted to use either pencil or charcoal to draw it, and <sup>3</sup> _____ we collected some paper before starting our work. <sup>4</sup> _____, the fire alarm rang and we all had to go and stand outside. We were there for a long time. <sup>5</sup> _____, we went back into the art class, but there were only five minutes of the lesson left, so Mr Jenkins said we should finish the work <sup>6</sup> _____. We'll probably do it in our next class, so you'll be able to do it, too!

Hope you get better soon,
Stevie
