

WORDSEARCH

Afraid • Beautiful • Brave • Bright • Dangerous
Defiant • Deformed • Embarrassed • Gloomy Good looking • Humble • Mad • Merciful • Poor Precious • Shy • Strict • Witty

2

This is a synopsis of the play you are going to watch.

Use the pictures to help you fill in the gaps.

Cathedral

freedom

gargoyle

gipsy

guard

imagine

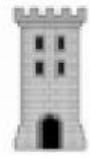

love

sad

story

tower

This 1) _____ takes place in the city of Paris in the late 15th century.

Quasimodo, the deformed bell-ringer of Notre-Dame 2) _____, has been locked in the bell tower all his life. Monsieur Richmond, the Mayor, is the selfish, mean authority of the city, who hates gypsies. He has kept Quasimodo isolated in the bell

3) _____ and does not want him to leave the place or socialise with anyone.

One day, Esmeralda, a gipsy girl who is escaping from the Captain of the Mayor's

4) _____, hides in the cathedral and meets Quasimodo. Neither Esmeralda nor Quasimodo 5) _____ this can change their lives forever.

Quasimodo and his friend, the 6) _____, immediately decide to help Esmeralda. As soon as the 7) _____ girl gets to know about Quasimodo and his 8) _____ life, she decides to help him back, no matter what the dreadful Mayor does to take away their 9) _____ and happiness. But, meanwhile,

Phoebus, the Captain of the Guard of Paris, realises he can change Esmeralda and Quasimodo's fate with just a little help and 10) _____.

