

Use both, either or neither to fill the gaps

1. We have asked them both but _____ of them knows his address.
2. He has lived in Milan and Madrid but he didn't like _____ of the cities much.
3. He has 2 cars, but I don't like _____ of them.
4. She couldn't choose between them, she liked them
5. You can take _____ a bus or a train to get to Oxford.
6. Would you like fish or chicken? - It doesn't matter. _____ will do for me.
7. Would you like apple juice or orange juice? - _____, thanks. I don't like juice.
8. Would you like some salad or some steak? - _____. I'm so hungry.
9. Doesn't he use _____ of his phones?
10. _____ of them invited me, so I didn't go there.
11. You should keep _____ hands on the steering wheel.
12. I don't like horror films, and my husband doesn't like ... (either/neither).
13. ... (Either/Both) my mother and father have green eyes.
14. I asked two friends to help me with the test, but _____ of them knew the answer.
15. Her dress was _____ black or brown.
16. Please ask _____ Fred or Linda to buy some milk.