What I like best about it is the [redacted]. You reach it through some glass [redacted] doors from the living room. We're on the eighth [redacted] so we can see right across the city, which is [redacted]. The block has a [redacted] that we share with all the other residents, but it would be nice to have a garden of our own. Unfortunately, my parents don't earn much money, so we can't afford to move anywhere better.  LIVEWORKSHEETS
