

Write next to the definition the correct concept about start-ups.

Start-up

customer

profit

market research

entrepreneur

finance

business plan

Money that you make in business or by selling things.

money used to run a business, an activity or a project.

a person who starts or runs a business.

A company that is just beginning to operate the work of collecting information about what people buy and why a person or an organization that buys goods or services from a business

The description of the business's ideas and objectives for the future