

Learn Grammar Can and Could

Can tells us what someone knows how to do now, in the present.

Could tells us what someone knew how to do before, in the past.

Then	Now
Sati couldn't ice skate.	Sati can ice skate.
Sati could play with Nisha.	Sati can't play with Nisha.

Circle the correct word.

- 1 When I was five years old, I can / couldn't ride a bike.
- 2 Now I'm eight, and I can / could ride a bike.
- 3 When I was younger, I can / couldn't catch a ball.
- 4 Now I can / couldn't catch a ball.

Then: He read English books.

Now: She speak English.

Then: She play soccer.

Now: I go the fair.

Now: I go to the festival.

Then: He go fishing.

