Expressing Agreement: So, Too, Neither Either

Joan OK, husband, agree on everything. Finish John sentences using neither or so.

He won't eat anything yellow and _____. We enjoyed walking sometimes, but he Prefer sitting in the garden and _____. I can play the piano and _____, so we play together in the evenings. He has been to Egypt and _____but we both went there before we met. I don't like long films on the TV and _____. We always fall asleep before the end. He had a very lonely childhood, I'm afraid, and. _____. I'll never forget the first time we met and _____. We were in a music shop, and he began playing my favorite song on the piano. He hasn't stopped playing and _____!.

Complete the conversation. Use the words and expressions in the box.

Excited
Neither
Interesting
Either
Too
So
Tired
Convincing

Sherry	I feel _____ tonight. I really don't want to go out.
Mary	_____ do I. Say, would you like to stay and watch some series?
Sherry	What a great idea! I love period dramas.
Mary	I do, _____. They're romantic and really _____Have you seen "Bridgenton"?
Sherry	Yes, I have. Regé-Jean Page looks so handsome, his acting is really _____. I've seen the whole series in one go.
Mary	_____have I! I was so _____in the last few chapters that I couldn't stop watching it!
Sherry	I know! Well, what about something to eat? I'm starving!
Mary	Mmmm I would like some Japanese food. I don't want to eat any fast food.
Sherry	I don't _____. Let's order some sushi.

LIVEWORKSHEETS