Choose the correct item.

1 Chinese New Year is a celebration of/for family and fortune.

2 The food at Angie's Restaurant is nice. In/For particular, the cheeseburger

3 In China, oranges are symbols of/to luck.

4 Rice is a basic part in/of the Chinese diet.

5 She knows a special way with/of cooking peppers.

6 In China, some people believe that red keeps evil spirits off/away.

7 We decorated the house with/in balloons for Kevin's party.

8 Too much sugar is bad with/for your health.

Write the word according to the definition:

1. Happening every year _____
2. Togetherness with the family _____
3. A ghost _____
4. To cook food in very hot water _____
5. To offer food and drinks _____
6. Very tasty _____
7. Richness _____
8. A small ball of dough with a filling _____
9. A type of food _____
10. A special, pleasurable, social event _____
11. The beliefs, arts, philosophy of a nation _____
12. In a good physical condition _____
13. A long thin string of pasta _____
14. A big round juicy fruit _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete the sentences with the following words: annual, serve, decorate, traditional, must, coin, symbolise.

1. Melon _____ strong family ties.
2. Pomegranates are a _____ for Chinese New Year.
3. New Year is an _____ holiday.
4. One of the dumplings usually has a _____ inside.
5. How do Ukrainians _____ their houses on New Year's Eve?
6. What _____ English dishes do you know?
7. The Chinese _____ noodles not only with chicken.

Unscramble the following words:

1. kbear
2. inco
3. tibe
4. oilb
5. molen
6. utiny
7. ilve tirips
8. bratelece
9. rindaman

LIVEWORKSHEETS