Extra listening

Listening strategy

Before doing a listening exercise, read the statements or questions carefully. They give you a good idea of what the exercise is about. Then underline the key words in the statements or questions, as these will guide you to the correct information when listening.

1 Read exercise 2 below and underline the key words.

2  145 Listen to a presentation about giving gifts. Write T (true) or F (false) next to the statements.

Gifts form an important part of our relationships with people. T

- A gift shows that you haven't thought about the person.
- Giving gifts only started recently.
- People showed their importance in society by giving expensive gifts.
- People like giving gifts.
- Thinking about people's needs and interests makes us unhappy.
