Read the text bellow!

My School Library

My school library is located in front of my school. It is big and tidy.

There are many kinds of book put on the shelf, they are text books, novels, encyclopedias, folk stories, dictionaries and magazines.

The students can visit the library every day when they need. The visitors of the library always keep their voice to be silent because if they make noise, it means they do not respect others.

The students can read the books and borrow them to read in their house if they have a member card of the library.

The library can help the students to get more information and knowledge
