

Social Studies

Explicit and Implicit communication

Name: _____

Instruction: Say whether the statement below are IMPLICIT or EXPLICIT

1. Go to the store. _____
2. Pick up the book, please. _____
3. It is roasting today. _____
4. Write this down. _____
5. It would be a shame if something happened to you. _____
6. Please, shut the door. _____
7. Go outside and look at the rainbow. _____
8. Stop! Or else. _____
9. Go to the shop and get something for breakfast. _____
10. Do not walk eat in the classroom. _____

Fill in the blank with the correct word, either EXPLICIT or IMPLICIT, in the correct form.

1. _____ information is often easier to argue about and debate, since the exact meaning is open to interpretation.

2. _____ information, on the other hand, explains the meaning clearly so people can understand it easily.
3. Some teachers are vague about their classroom rule and expect students to have an _____ understanding of academic behavior.
4. Children learn language in an _____ manner, because they are too young to learn grammar rules.
5. I can't believe you cheated on your essay when I gave _____ instructions not to plagiarize!