LANGUAGE PRACTICE

Adverbial clauses: before, after, and when Grammar Reference page 118

The wedding will be before the party begins.
Before the party started, we made a cake.

We usually have a party when we graduate from high school.
When she left college, she traveled for a year.

She looked very happy after she opened the present.
After the meal is over, we usually go dancing.

SEQUENCE ADVERBS

First, buy a present.
Then get dressed up.
Next, go to the party.
Finally, have fun!

1 Complete the sentences with before, after, or when.

1. ___When___ Jacob had a birthday, we gave him a surprise party.
2. [ ] he opened the door, we all shouted, "Surprise!"
3. We sang "Happy Birthday" [ ] he blew out the candles.
4. [ ] he opened his gifts, he sent thank-you cards.

2 Match the information to make complete sentences.

1. When I have a problem, ___	a. after I read her terrible email.
2. I felt really angry ___	b. when I go to a party.
3. I try to look good ___	c. I went to another one!
4. Before I went home, ___	d. before I come to class.
5. After I left your party, ___	e. I talk to my best friend.
6. I don't eat breakfast ___	f. I bought some flowers.

3 PAIR WORK What do you do in these situations? Use sequence adverbs.

1. What do you do when you have a party?
2. What do you do before you go to a party?
3. What do you do when you arrive at a party?
4. What do you do after you get home from a party?

1.- _____

2. _____

3.- _____

4.- _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS