

Write a word from the box next to the definition

Confusing Verbs (p. 160)
carry / wear	1	to have something on your body 2	to hold or bring something from one place to another earn / gain / win	3	to be first in a competition or receive an award
	4	to get something in exchange for work such as money
	5	to get or increase get to know / know / meet / visit	6	general knowledge or information; be familiar with a person
	7	for the first time; get together
	8	to travel to a place and then leave 9	the process of becoming familiar with a place or person expect / hope / look forward to / wait	10	to want something to happen 11	to let time pass because we are expecting something or someone
	12	to anticipate with excitement
	13	to believe something will happen
look at / watch / see	14	to actively pay attention to something in motion 15	to actively pay attention to something 16	to passively observe something through the eyes lose / miss	17	fail to catch, take advantage of, or reach 18	to not win; to not be able to find bring / take	19	carry from a place 20	carry to a place
find / look for	21	to search for something that you can't find 22	to encounter the item you were looking for say / tell	23	focus on the words; you should ____ "hello!" 24	focus on the content or message; you should ____ me the secret borrow / lend	25	to give somebody something that they are going to return 26	to take something from somebody that you are going to return look / look like	27	Appear or seem 28	Appear or seem similar to