

8A Beat the robbers...and the burglars

HOW NOT TO GET ROBBED ON THE STREET

1

You dramatically increase your chances of being robbed if you look as if you might have a lot of money on you. You don't have to look like a hobo, but you should try to look as if you aren't carrying much of value. If you're a tourist, keep your expensive camera or phone hidden.

2

This is especially true in countries where there are big income differences, and particularly in urban areas. Children are sadly often the most dangerous people on the street because they have nothing to lose. If you see a group of children coming toward you, ignore them completely and walk quickly to an area where there are plenty of other people.

3

If you see that people are watching you in a suspicious way, look straight back at them and make eye contact. If they were thinking of robbing you, it will make them realize that you may not be an easy target.

4

If you are a tourist and somebody on the street tells you to put your phone away, do it. Sometimes the locals can be overprotective because they want you to see the best side of their town, but it's always a good idea to take their advice. If they say don't go somewhere, don't.

5

The safest thing to do is to call a reputable company every time you need one (your hotel can usually help with this). If you do have to get a taxi on the street, make sure it looks like a regulated one (e.g., one that has an official number or company phone number on it), and never ever get into a cab that has another person in the front passenger seat.

6

What's the first thing tourists do when they come out of the Times Square subway station in New York City? They look up at the tall buildings, and then they pose to have their photo taken. When they're looking up, or looking at the camera, that's the moment when a pickpocket steals their wallet. Thieves also love the posters you see that warn tourists: "Watch out for pickpockets!" When men read that, their natural reaction is to immediately put their hand on the pocket where their wallet is, to make sure it's still there. The pickpockets are watching, and so they see exactly where the man is carrying his wallet.

4 MINI GRAMMAR

have something done

They look up at the tall buildings, and then they pose to have their photo taken.

- Use have (something) done when you get another person to do something for you.

Compare:

I had my photo taken at Rockefeller Center = I asked someone to take my photo.

- Have is the main verb so it changes according to the tense.
I'm going to have my hair cut tomorrow. I had my car repaired after the accident.
- You can also use get instead of have, e.g., I'm going to get my hair cut tomorrow.

- a Complete the sentences with the right form of have + the past participle of a verb from the list.

cut install renew repair take

- How often do you _____ your hair _____?
- Have you ever had a problem with your laptop? Where did you _____ it _____?
- Do you usually _____ your passport or ID card _____ in plenty of time before it expires?
- Have you _____ a burglar alarm _____ in your house or apartment? What kind is it?
- Have you ever _____ your photo _____ in front of a famous monument? Where?

- b Ask and answer the questions with a partner.
