

1 Complete the sentences with the correct bold words.

If you break the, you might have to go to court crime law sentence

1 After Jack was given his, he had tosix months in prison.

go sentence service spend

2 If someone a crime, they shouldn't be allowed to getwith it.

away breaks commits to

3 Two of the offenders went to..... , but one womanaway with doing community service.

got paid law prison

4 The judge the offender by ordering him to pay a fine punished sentence spent

5 The witness was frightened of to court in case she wasn't fairly.

breaking going punished treated

Idioms

2 Complete the text with the correct form of the idioms in the list.

be above board ~~catch someone red handed~~ face the music get to the bottom of keep nose clean step out of line

Three years ago, Alan was caught red handed selling stolen products. The judge sent him to prison. The police, who believed that there were more people involved, were determined to it, and they arrested many people.

However, Alan realized that it was time to and accept his punishment. He left prison knowing that, if he again, he might be back in there very soon. He made the decision to from that moment on and, since then, all his work . He retrained as a gardener and now works in a local park.

3 Replace the underlined verbs with the phrasal verbs in the list.

bring in find out let on own up to set you up stamp out ~~stand up to~~

It was brave of you to confront your bullies. stand up to 1 There's no chance of getting your money back. The company has tricked you.

2 Abigail revealed that her cousin had been caught shoplifting.

3 The police are determined to discover where the criminals might be hiding.

4 I know you stole my money. When are you going to admit it?

5 The police and local council are working very hard to stop crime in this area.

6 I think the government should introduce tougher punishments for offenders.

4 Use the correct form of the idioms and phrasal verbs in the lists.

Idioms: be above board be caught red handed

~~face the music~~

get to the bottom of (something)

step out of line

Phrasal verbs: cover up find out ~~own up to~~ set up stamp out

It's time to admit to what you've done and accept your punishment.

It's time to own up to what you've done and face the music.

1 The man was observed while he was attempting to trick a customer.

The man was

2 Now that we've understood everything that happened, we can stop crime in this area.

Now that we've

3 While some businesses attempt to hide their lack of tax payments, others prefer to keep their business legal.

While some businesses attempt to 4 My mum always discovers when I've misbehaved.

My mum always