

I. Who is who? Match job titles with statements.

Computer Support Specialist, Web Designer, Software Developer,
Computer Network Architect, System Administrator, Information
Security Analyst, Quality Assurance Analyst, Database
Administrator, Web Developer, IT Technician, Computer
Programmer

1. My job is to create computer software. I create instructions for computers to generate meaningful output. I write code mainly in Java, but I've also worked with Assembler.

I am a Computer Programmer

2. I support company's computing environment and ensure good performance of IT services and support systems.

I am a

3. I am responsible for storing and organizing company's data. I also protect the data from unauthorized users. I work for a financial firm with a large database system.

I am a

4. I protect the computer network of the company. I plan and carry out different security measures, for example I install and use software to simulate cyber attacks in order to test computer systems.

I am a

5. I build and shape a visitor's experience at a website. I create webpage layouts (headings, paragraphs etc), website styling (colors and fonts), and page features (animations and pictures). Mainly I use HTML/CSS frameworks and JavaScript to create websites and web applications.

I am a

6. My responsibilities at work are to design, run and test computer programs and applications. I have a bachelor's degree in computer science. I need to have strong programming skills to do this job.

I am a

7. I set up workstations with computers and other devices, ensure functionality of computer hardware (HDD, mouses, keyboards etc.) I also install and configure appropriate software and functions.

I am a

8. I am responsible for creating test plans, executing those plans and managing all activities in the plan to ensure that the program works well.

I am a

9. I assist users who are having problems with software, computers or peripherals, for example printers or scanners.

I am a

10. I am responsible for creating the design and layout of a website or a web page. Sometimes I create new websites, but mostly I update and improve already existing sites.

I am a

11. My work duties are to design, build and maintain data communication networks. I have a bachelor's degree in computer science.

I am a

II. Make true sentences about yourself. Use as many words from the box as possible.

deal with, maintain, carry out, ensure, design,
set up, install, configure, protect, assist, provide,
manage, estimate, execute, improve, run

I am a _____ (your job).

My responsibilities are to _____

The most important task in my job is _____

I also _____

In my past experience I _____
