

New vocab activity

Drag the correct term beside the matching definition.

The struggle among living things for resources.

Material that living things use to survive.

Include all living and non livings that interact in an environment.

Competition

Resource

Ecosystem