

Exercise 1

Put one suitable word in each space.

- a) My cousin George is obsessed keeping fit.
- b) Many frozen foods are deficient vitamins.
- c) It was very good Sue to drive us to the airport.
- d) The same rule applies everyone, irrespective of how much you have paid.
- e) I pleaded John to change his mind, but he wouldn't listen.
- f) Is it possible to secure my laptop theft?
- g) It looks as if the front door lock has been with.

Exercise 2

Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence, using the word given. Do not change the word given.

- a) You think I am someone else.

confusing

You are someone else.

- b) Gary is proud of the fact that he is never late.

on

Gary prides being early.

- c) What is the difference between nuclear fission and nuclear fusion?

differ

How exactly nuclear fusion?

- d) They said the accident was Mary's fault.

blamed

They Mary.