

BOOK CLUB LISTENING

You will hear an interview with a girl called Mara who started a book club at her school. Listen and choose the correct answer.

1 Mara first thought of starting a book club after

- A she read about one online.
- B one of her parents suggested it.
- C somebody at school told her about one.

2 What does Mara say about the club meetings?

- A They've always led by one of her teachers.
- B A different person picks the book for each one.
- C Students have to prepare answers to questions.

3 Mara thinks it's better if the club reads books which

- A nobody in the group has read.
- B everybody in the group has heard of.
- C somebody in the group knows and loves.

4 Mara says that if some members don't like a book.

- A she tries to change their mind.
- B then they don't have to finish reading it.
- C it can make the meetings more interesting.

5 Mara enjoys it most when members of the book club

- A share ideas for stories of their own.
- B get in touch with the author of the book.
- C watch a film based on the book they're reading.

6 Mara advises anyone interested in starting a school book club to

- A give members different responsibilities
- B decide the type of novels they're going to read.
- C encourage new members to join from time to time.

