

ADJECTIVES: -ED OR -ING

First, choose the correct adjective for each situation. Then, complete with the appropriate form.

terrified tired annoyed amazed excited relaxed disappointed bored confused surprised terrifying tiring annoying amazing exciting relaxing disappointing boring confusing surprising

The magic show was

I had a really weekend.

I was
by the magician's incredible tricks.

I felt so I took a nap after school.

What a long day! I'm very now.

I was because Joe was playing loud music.

It's very being a parent.

It's very when people make a lot of noise.

I failed my driving test last week. I was really

It's always to go to a live concert.

It's, but I can take the test again.

I got my ticket for the music festival. I'm so

The class was very this morning.

Ana received a e-mail this morning.

I was so, I fell asleep!

Ana was really
when she read the email.

I don't like this. I am of heights!

I'm completely I
don't know what this means.

I didn't think cleaning windows would be so

These instructions are very

By Miss Huerres