ICE BUCKET CHALLENGE

The Ice Bucket Challenge is a campaign to promote awareness of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) – also known as Lou Gehrig's disease – and raise funds for research. A person makes a video of themselves dumping a bucket of ice water on their head, posts it on Facebook, Instagram or other social media sites, and then nominates a minimum of three people to do the same things within 24 hours or donate $100 to the ALS Association. It quickly went from a fundraising campaign to a viral Internet sensation in July and August, 2014. According to the New York Times, more than 17 million people posted videos online, including former president George W. Bush. On August 29th, 2014, the ALS Association announced that the total donation had exceeded $100 million.

WORLD'S BIGGEST COFFEE MORNING

World's Biggest Coffee Morning is Macmillan Cancer Support's biggest fundraising event. Each year, people all over the UK and worldwide host their own coffee morning. Coffee mornings can be held in homes, workplaces or schools. The first official event took place in 1990 with a simple idea: some people came together for a cup of coffee and a slice of cake, and made a donation to the organization to help support people living with cancer. It has grown into the biggest fundraising event of its kind and raised more than £275 million. In 2021 alone, World's Biggest Coffee Morning raised £27 million. The official date in 2022 is Friday 30th September, but people can host theirs at any time. Companies also join in the event. Saigon Children's Charity CIO (saigonchildren) is a non-profit organization which works to bring a brighter future to disadvantaged and vulnerable children in Vietnam. It was set up in 1992, and its aim is to help disadvantaged children get a quality education and a fairer start in life. The organization works across Vietnam to overcome barriers to education for children. There are four main charitable projects. Firstly, it has built schools in remote areas where existing facilities become unsafe or unsuitable, and in areas where children must travel a long distance to school. Since 1993, saigonchildren has built 571 classrooms, as well as hygienic toilet and wash facilities, libraries and playgrounds. Secondly, it has provided over 41,000 children from disadvantaged backgrounds with scholarships including tuition fees, books, uniforms, stationary and social care. Saigonchildren has also supported over 10,000 young adults in difficult circumstances over the past 25 years. Thang Long Vocational Training School, which is fully funded by saigonchildren, offers young adults free classes in English, IT and soft skills. Last but not least, the Special Needs Education Program supports children with disabilities such as deafness, blindness or autism. In 2018, the organization received the Certificate of Merit from the Prime Minister of Vietnam in recognition of their work.
