

SUBJECT AND OBJECT QUESTIONS. QUESTIONS FOR ANSWERS.

JUANA MORAL 'S ENGLISH SITE

1. Object questions. Make questions for the answers below. Focus on the elements in bold:

- a.? I went to the party yesterday
- b.? My friends were reading War and Peace
- c.? Sandra has travelled five times to Rome
- d.? Sandra has travelled five times to Rome
- e.? I usually do sports twice a week.
- f.? The flight took five hours

2. Subject questions. Make questions for the answers below. Focus on the subject in bold:

- a.? My friends were reading War and Peace
- b.? Sandra has travelled five times to Rome
- c.? The dog ate a bone
- d.? The book was absolutely boring
- e.? Peter usually does sports twice a week.
- f.? The flight took five hours

3. Write questions using the elements below for the answers (there are both subject and object questions):

1 who / phone / Dave?

'.....?'

'Tim phoned Dave.'

2 how many people / know / Ellie?

'.....?'

'A lot of people knew Ellie.'

3 why / he / send / you a text message?

'.....?'

'He was reminding me to go to the library.'

4 who / you / call?

'.....?'

'I called my mum.'

5 what / happen / to Bill yesterday?

'.....?'

'He fell off his bike.'

6 who / she / meet / at the party?

'.....?'

'She met Myles and Andy.'

4. Read the sentences. Write a subject (S) and object (O) question for each one. Then write the answers.

Sally kissed Peter.

(S) 1?

(O) 2?

Andy hates Becky.

(S) 3?

(O) 4?

Molly phoned Susan.

(S) 5?

(O) 6?